Lewis Named GSC Offensive Player of the Week

Kellen Lewis became the first Blazer to earn Gulf South Conference Player of the Week honors when he earned the league's offensive honor on October 12. Lewis was honored after leading Valdosta State to a 33-20 victory over Henderson State, a game in which he accounted for 426 of VSU's 530 yards of total offense in the game.

Lewis completed 22-of-34 passes for 314 yards, his third straight 300-yard passing game, in the contest while rushing the ball 18 times for 112 yards. He had a hand in all four of Valdosta State's touchdowns in the game as he ran for scores of six and 20 yards while throwing touchdowns of 18 and 17 yards.

Lewis is the first offensive player from Valdosta State to earn GSC Player of the Week honors since Michael Terry did so on September 29, 2007.

Jones Sets Receiving Record

Valdosta State's Cedric Jones became the most prolific receiver in Gulf South Conference and Valdosta State history when he caught 14 passes against Delta State on October 1. The 14 receptions game Jones a total of 258 in his career, surpassing Sean Pender's school and league record of 247 set between 1992 and 1996. Jones now ranks 10th all-time in the NCAA Division II record books with 265 catches and is 58 behind Division II record holder Clarence Coleman of Ferris State, who caught 323 passes during his career.

Injuries Begin to Pile Up

Valdosta State has been victimized by the injury bug through the first half of the 2009 season as five players have suffered season ending injuries thus far. The defense has been the hardest hit by the injuries as four players, including two starters, off of the two-deep depth chart have been sidelined for the season, including Demario Jones, Japree Miles, Rashad Etheridge and Brett Sudduth. Meanwhile, Cam Short on the offensive line also had his season ended due to injury while Gordon Steele has yet to return from an injury suffered during spring conditioning.

Through the first five games, 15 Blazers have missed games due to injury. In addition to the six players listed above, kicker Daniel Andersen (one game), wide receiver Cedric Evans (two games), offensive guard Lance Helton (one game), kicker Justin Kraemer (three games), linebacker Ryan Smith (one game), defensive tackle Demetrius Bozeman (one game) cornerback Alex Webster (two games), wide receiver Chris Wellborn (two games), wide receiver Owen Dixon (one game) and offensive tackle Britt Wilson (two games) have all missed games for VSU this year. As a group, the injured players have missed a total of 39 games this season.

Gulf South Conference Success

The Blazers have been among the top three in the GSC every year since 2000. Over the course of the last nine-plus seasons, Valdosta State has compiled a 72-11 (.867) record and went a perfect 9-0 in 2001, 2002 and 2004. VSU won GSC championships in 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2004.

Overall, the Blazers have gone a 147-69-3 (.678) record in GSC play and have won five conference championships, with the first coming in 1996. Valdosta State has winning records against eight of the 10 current GSC teams and boasts a 119-49-2 (.706) record against those schools.

Valdosta State's 72 GSC wins over the last nine-plus seasons are nine more than Delta State, who is second with 63 during that time span.

Freshmen Filling the Holes

A bevy of freshmen are getting to see action for the Blazers this year as 13 played in the season opener against Newberry and a total of 16 have played through the first five games. Seven of the freshman are true freshman this season while the remaining six red-shirted last year. Overall, the 2009 Valdosta State roster includes 21 freshmen.

Of the 13 freshman that played against Newberry, three started, including true freshman Matt Pierce at free safety, red-shirt Alex Webster at right corner and true freshman kicker Daniel Anderson.

The remaining freshmen that saw action in the season opener included wide receivers Gerald Ford (red-shirt) and Rico Mack (true) as well as right tackle Edmond Kugbila (true), left tackle Mesh Wokomaty (red-shirt) and center Jake Thomas (true) on offense and linebacker Ryan Smith (red-shirt), defensive tackle Demetrius Bozeman (true), defensive ends Marcus Nedd (red-shirt) and Eddie Brown (red-shirt), as well as free safety Brett Sudduth (red-shirt).

The Blazers on the Road

Valdosta State has played 155 games away from home during its 27-year history and has tallied an 93-59-3 record (.610) in those games. Since the beginning of the 2000 season, the Blazers have been even more impressive on the road, winning 47 of 57 contests (.839). In fact, only three (2006, 2008 and 2009) has VSU lost more than one road game in a season during that span.

The Blazers at Home

Valdosta State has won 120 of 159 games, with 38 losses and one tie (.758), on its home field since beginning football in 1982. The Blazers are an impressive 111-34-1 (.764) at Bazemore-Hyder Stadium and have gone 9-4 (.692) at Martin Stadium.

VSU has gone undefeated at home seven times (5-0 in 2006, 6-0 in 2004, 9-0 in 2002, 5-0 in 1995, 8-0 in 1994, 3-0-1 in 1992 and 5-0 in 1986) in its 27-year history. The Blazers have been particularly successful at home since the beginning of the 2000 season as they have tallied a 54-9 record (.857) during that span.

Lewis Settles In

During the summer of 2009, much was made about the fact that former Indiana quarterback Kellen Lewis had transferred to Valdosta State. After all, Lewis had set 16 school records for the Hoosiers and had been named second-team All-Big Ten as a sophomore in 2007.

Lewis has done little to disappoint while wearing the Red and Black as he has started all five games and has passed for 1,564 yards on the season. The Jacksonville, Fla. native has completed 149-of-232 passes, a 64.2 percent completion rate, and has thrown seven touchdowns. Additionally, Lewis has carried the ball 54 times for 261 yards and six touchdowns on the year.

Lewis earned Gulf South Conference Player of the Week honors on October 12 after leading VSU to a 33-20 victory over Henderson State the weekend before. He completed 22-of-34 passes for 314 yards and rushed for another 112 yards, accounting for 426 of Valdosta State's 530 yards of total offense in the contest. He also had a hand in all four Blazer touchdowns in the game as he ran for two and passed for two.

Lewis' comfort level has been evident over the last three week has he passed for 936 yards and five touchdowns, completing 83-of-127 passes in the process. He has also rushed for 241 yards and four touchdowns during that time. Lewis has accounted for 1,177 of Valdosta State's 1,422 yards of total offense in those games.

Blazers Among the Nations Best

Now in its 28th year of football, Valdosta State ranks among the top schools in the nation in terms of all-time winning percentage. In fact only three schools, Grand Valley State, Bentley and West Chester, have a better all-time winning percentage than the Blazers, whose 213-99-4 all-time record accounts for a .680 winning percentage over the history of the program. Below is a look at the top five teams by winning percentage all-time on the NCAA Division II level:

5.	Valdosta State	28	213	99	4	.680

One of the Best Since the Turn of the Century

Much of the Blazers' all-time winning percentage ranking can be attributed to Valdosta State's play since the beginning of the 2000 season, as only two Division II teams have won more games during that period. The Blazers have tallied 101 wins over the course of the last nine seasons, behind only Grand Valley State's 115 and Northwest Missouri State's 105. GVSU (.906) and Tuskegee (.847) are the only teams with a better winning percentage than Valdosta State's .842. Below is a look at the top five in the nation in each category since the beginning of 2000:

Five Selected to Preseason All-Gulf South Conference Team

Five Blazers were selected among the best in the GSC by the GSC coaches during the preseason, including two seniors and three juniors. Wide receiver Cedric Jones represented the VSU offensive squad while long snapper Joey Farmer, who was second team All-GSC following the 2008 season, was named to the special teams unit. The final three selections all came from the defensive side of the ball where linebacker Larry Dean, defensive tackle Demario Jones, both of whom earned second team All-GSC last year, and cornerback Carlos Anderson earned the honor. Cedric Jones and Anderson are seniors while Demario Jones, Dean and Farmer are all juniors.

Opening Day Losses a Rarity

Valdosta State's opening game loss marked the first time since the 2004 season that the Blazers lost their first game of the year. In fact, the loss marked just the 10th time in 28 years that VSU lost its first game of the year.

More surprising than the opening day loss was the fact that the Blazers dropped their home opener, an occurrence that had not occurred since the 1998 opener, in which Fort Valley State defeated the Blazers 20-14. Valdosta State had won its last 10 straight home openers and 23 of its 27 previous home openers.

Andersen Takes Over Kicking Duties

True freshman Daniel Andersen has impressed through his first two collegiate games, during which he has handled the Valdosta State kicking duties. Andersen has connected on all 13 of his extra point attempts and is four-of-six on field goals, including a 49-yarder against Southern Arkansas. The 49 yard field goal was the longest by a Blazer since Michael Green kicked a 52-yarder against West Georgia on November 5, 2005.

On the Air

For the fourth straight season, Valdosta State will have a minimum of two games broadcast on television in 2009. Three VSU games were broadcast on the GSC TV "Game of the Week" package in 2006 while three more were shown on the GSC package in 2007. Additionally, two of the Blazers' NCAA Playoff games were shown on the ESPN family of networks.

VSU was scheduled to have three broadcasts in 2008 as well, with two coming in the GSC package and one on CBS College Sports, but a tropical storm caused the cancellation of the CBS College Sports broadcast just hours before VSU took the field.

This season, Valdosta State will play two games, at Delta State and at West Georgia, on the GSC TV "Game of the Week" package while also having its home contest against North Alabama nationally broadcast on CBS College Sports.

In addition to the televised contests, all of Valdosta State's home contests will be webcast by VSU TV. The webcasts will be available at www.vstateblazers.tv.

Jones Enjoying Record-Breaking Senior Season

In his final year in the Red and Black, wide receiver Cedric Jones is enjoying a record-breaking season as he has already established a new Valdosta State and Gulf South Conference career receptions record, currently standing with 265. Jones broke the old record of 247, held by VSU's Sean Pender, with his fourth reception against Delta State October 1.

Jones, who currently leads VSU with 40 receptions on the year, has led the Blazers in receiving in each of his first three years. He burst on to the Division II scene in 2006 with 66 receptions, before catching 102 while earning All-America honors in 2007. He tallied 57 catches in 2008. His 258 career receptions currently ranks 12th on the NCAA Division II career list.

Jones is now up to second all-time at VSU and fifth in the GSC in receiving yards with 2,938 and has caught 21 touchdowns.

In addition to his 40 receptions, Jones also leads VSU with 359 receiving yards and two touchdowns on the year.

Blazers Make the Point, Hold Current Consecutive Games Scoring Streak

Known for its offense, Valdosta State is the current NCAA Division II leader in games without being shutout as the Blazers have scored in each of their last 220 games. The last time VSU was shutout was on September 14, 1991 when UCF defeated the Blazers 12-0 in Orlando, Fla. Below is a closer look at the current Division II top 10 in consecutive games without being shutout:

Rank	School	Games
1.	Valdosta State	220
2.	Grand Valley State	209
3.	Central Missouri	199
4.	Carson-Newman	197
5.	Nebraska-Kearney	179

Non-Conference Success

Valdosta State saw its non-conference unbeaten streak snapped at 15 games when it fell to North Alabama in the NCAA Division II playoffs to end the 2008 season. The Blazers had won its three previous non-conference games in 2008 after going 6-0 in non-league action in 2007.

Ironically, two of Valdosta State's last three non-conference losses have come against North Alabama, a fellow Gulf South Conference member. The Lions defeated the Blazers 37-10 in the second round of the playoffs last year and claimed a 40-13 victory in the first round of the 2005 playoffs.

Newberry snapped the Blazers 15-game unbeaten streak against non-Gulf South Conference opponents when it defeated the Blazers 31-24 in the 2009 season opener. Prior to that game, VSU had not lost a game to a non-GSC team since Albany State claimed a 24-22 victory over Valdosta State on September 4, 2004.

Larry Making His Mark on the Field

Now in his third season at Valdosta State, linebacker Larry Dean has solidified himself as one of the top linebackers in the Gulf South Conference. Dean has played in all 31 games in his Valdosta State career, starting 28 of those contests. He has finished in the top five on the team in tackles in each of his first two seasons, finishing fifth with 71 as a freshman in 2007 before tallying a team-high 95 stops last season. He has 23.0 career tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks as well as four forced fumbles and eight passes broken up. He has tallied 215 tackles in his career, just 28 shy of 10th place all-time at VSU.

Should Dean continue his average of 83 tackles per season over the course of the rest of his career, he will become just the second Blazer to tally 300 career stops, joining former VSU great Jessie Tuggle, who owns the Valdosta State career mark with 340 tackles. He needs just 6.0 more tackles for loss to move into that category's top 10.

Special Teams Get Offensive

The importance Head Coach David Dean places on special teams play is evidenced by the fact that Valdosta State has blocked 13 opponent kicks over the course of the last two-plus years, including seven punts, three extra points and three field goal attempts. The Blazers have scored on six of the 13 blocks, including four touchdowns, a safety and a defensive two-point conversion.

Meanwhile, the Blazer kickoff and punt return units have scored five touchdowns off returns the last two seasons. Over all, the special teams units have accounted for 67 points off of blocks and returns in Dean's time as head coach.

Season Ticket Sales Record Broken for Second Straight Year

For the second straight year, Valdosta State enters the football season having established a new record for season ticket sales. As of Wednesday, September 9, the VSU ticket office had issued 887 season tickets, 26 more than the record of 861 set during the 2008 season. Prior to 2008, the Valdosta State record for season tickets was 711. These numbers do not include corporate sales season tickets, which brings the 2009 total to 1,837.

Valdosta State has tallied 16,427 fans through its first three home games of the year, an average of 5,416 fans per game. The Blazers opened the season with a bang as they drew 9,217 fans to the season opener against Newberry.

Blazers Picked to Finish Third in the Gulf South Conference

The Gulf South Conference coaches picked Valdosta State to finish third in the league in 2009, in a vote conducted during the 2009 preseason. Delta State, which has won the conference each of the last two years, was selected to three-peat, finishing with 96 votes while North Alabama came in second with 88 votes. The Blazers, who tallied two first place votes, were one vote behind UNA at 87 followed by Arkansas-Monticello (72), Arkansas Tech (59), Henderson State (52), Ouachita Baptist (43), West Alabama (40), Harding (26), Southern Arkansas (23) and West Georgia (19).

Defense Enjoys Record Setting Night

After spending two weeks listening to skeptics upon surrendering 470 yards of total offense to Newberry in the season opener, the Valdosta State defense enjoyed one of the best nights in school history in VSU's 32-7 victory over Southern Arkansas September 12. The Blazers allowed the Muleriders just 39 yards of total offense, the second fewest surrendered by Valdosta State in a game. SAU tallied 53 passing yards in the game while being held to minus-14 yards of rushing, which tied the third fewest yards ever by a Blazer opponent. The defense surrendered just seven first downs on the evening, three of which came via penalty, which ranked sixth-best all-time and was denied a shutout when a Kellen Lewis pass was intercepted and returned 29 yards for a touchdown. Southern Arkansas ran 54 plays in the game and averaged just 0.7 yards per play.

The 39 yards of total offense by Southern Arkansas was only bested by the 22 surrendered by the Blazers to Mount Senario on September 2, 1993. Meanwhile, only Central Florida, who lost a total of 29 yards rushing on October 22, 1988, and Clark Atlanta, which finished with minus-15 yards rushing on September 24, 1994, have rushed for fewer yards in a game than did SAU.

On the year, Valdosta State is now allowing 254.5 yards of total offense per game, including 61.5 on the ground and 193.0 through the air.

2009 Captains Named

In a preseason vote by the team, four juniors were named team captains by coach David Dean at the start of the season. Larry Dean returns for his second season as a captain and is joined by Demario Jones, Ronnye Nelson and Russ Callaway. The quartet will be joined at midfield by two senior captains and the previous week's player of the week, as selected by the coaches, for the pregame coin toss.

New Face on the Sideline

Valdosta State welcomes two new coaches in 2009 as Seth Wallace takes over the secondary and special teams units from Maurice Linguist. Wallace joined VSU from Iowa, where he served as a graduate assistant the last three years. Wallace was a standout at Division III Coe College as a player and also coached at Coe as a student assistant and Lake Forest College as offensive coordinator.

Meanwhile, Robby Brown has assumed the role of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Blazers. Brown played at Georgia Tech and has coached at Troy, Southwest Baptist and Henderson State.

Poll Streak Ends At 124 Weeks

The September 21, 2009 edition of the American Football Coaches Association Division II poll featured the first time Valdosta State has not been ranked since the preseason poll prior to the 2000 season. The AFCA has 129 polls overall, meaning VSU has missed only five polls appearances. Behind the Blazers, Pittsburg State has been in 123 polls, Northwest Missouri State 119, Grand Valley State 117 and Carson-Newman 115.

Holding Down the Top Spot

Of the 124 times that VSU has appeared in the AFCA poll, it has held the No. 1 spot 20 weeks, the second-most appearances at No. 1 among Division II schools. Grand Valley State holds the record of 78 weeks at No. 1 while Northwest Missouri State is the only other school in double figures with 12.

Nelson Featured in New York Times

Valdosta State Ronnye Nelson was featured in the Sports section of the Tuesday, September 29 edition of the New York Times in a story titled "Balancing Act May Help Division II Define Itself." The article, which appeared both online and in the print edition, discussed NCAA Division II's efforts to set itself apart from Division I and III.

In the piece, author Katie Thomas discusses why certain athletes who have the ability to play on the Division I level chose to play at a Division II institution. Nelson, who was being heavily recruited by Division I programs when he tore his ACL in the 2005 Georgia Class AAA state championship game, speaks to Valdosta State tradition of winning as a reason why he chose the school.

Pictures of Nelson, both in Bazemore-Hyder Stadium and in the VSU lockerroom at the new Athletic Fieldhouse, accompanied the story.

Game 1

Newberry 31, No. 12 Valdosta State 24
August 29 ♦ Bazemore-Hyder Stadium ♦ Valdosta, Ga.

Newberry scored 21 unanswered points and withstood a Valdosta State comeback bid to defeat the Blazers 31-24 in each team's season opener ... Newberry scored the first 10 points of the contest, with the first seven coming on a 29-yard fourth down touchdown pass ... Valdosta State responded with 17 points in the second quarter to build a 17-10 halftime lead ... A 52-yard Kellen Lewis to R.J. Bastone completion set up a Ronnye Nelson three-yard touchdown run while Lewis connected with Cedric Jones for a 40-yard touchdown pass to put VSU in front ... The touchdow marked Jones' first score since the 2008 season opener ... Newberry answered with 13 points in the third quarter on a pair of touchdowns while holding VSU to a punt, two interceptions and a missed field goal in the frame ... After a NC touchdown and two point conversion to open the fourth quarter, Valdosta State wasted two chances to score in the red zone as Russ Callaway and Ronnye Nelson each threw interceptions inside the Newberry 5 yard line ... A third Blazer drive in the fourth ended on downs on the Newberry 18 ... Callaway connected with Cedric Evans for an 18-yard touchdown strike with 32 seconds remaining in the game, but Newberry recovered the ensuing onside kick to seal the victory ... Overall, Valdosta State threw five interceptions in the game, including four in the second half after Lewis left with an injury.
